In the Spring, apparel should be lightened from the outside—first the overcoat, then the suit, last underwear. In Autumn just the reverse.

Selling time—not wearing time—now for Suits. Fashion favors chevots for both dress and business; but we shall tempt you equally with chevots and fancy worsteds by the nice taste we have exercised in the selection of patterns.

Our rightly made clothes fit stout and slim men equally with men of regular build. Stout sizes in underwear too. Every stout man knows how uncommon that is. New management brings improvement all through our furnishings.
